CREATIVITY CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

When you shop, your choices can make a positive impact on the world. And, one of our goals is to use the power of creativity and consciousness to preserve our planet and help you to feel great about those choices.

We are passionate about finding and developing new ways to decrease our environmental footprint. We're so proud to offer you, our community of Creators, the largest selection of upcycled, recycled, reclaimed, repurposed and sustainably managed framing and printing choices on the planet.

LOVE YOUR ART AND LOVE THE EARTH

We're proudly zero landfill. And what we do is built to last because we know your art and photos are precious. So you can revel in knowing that everything you create with us is done in harmony with the planet.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

Our commitment to conscious business is in our DNA. When you print and frame with us, you support initiatives like reclaiming and repurposing old barnwood, reducing landfill, and developing recyclable packaging materials. We invite you to join us as we continue to lead and develop innovative, sustainable practices.

Upcycled. Upscale.

Upcycled Wood Fiber frames are made from wood, otherwise destined to end up in a landfill, but transformed into something exceptionally beautiful. We take a stand for fine art quality, so you can rest assured that we only offer best-in-class framing choices that are second to none. So if you love the characteristics of wood, but are looking for a more budget-friendly price point, then Upcycled Wood Fiber is a great choice for your fine art paintings, photography and more.

Upcycled Wood Fiber frames are incredibly warp-resistant and amazingly sturdy. They're also delightfully versatile! You can achieve the rustic look of wood, or go for a bold contemporary style with stainless steel. From distressed shabby chic to smooth satin, Upcycled Wood Fiber frames can complement virtually any decor!

Fine art quality, endless eco-friendly styles and unsurpassed value — these are frames you can fall in love with.
